

Teaching the Codex: Pedagogical Approaches to Palaeography and Codicology History of the Book Special Colloquium

Saturday 6 February 2016

0900 Registration with tea & coffee

0945 Opening remarks

1000–1130 Classics

Chair: Stephen Heyworth (Classics, Oxford)

1000–1030 Niels Gaul (Classics, Edinburgh)

1030–1100 Nigel Wilson (Classics, Oxford)

1100–1130 Tobias Reinhardt (Classics, Oxford)

1130–1200 Tea & Coffee

1200–1300 Medieval I

Chair: Julia Crick (History, KCL)

1200–1230 Daniel Wakelin (English, Oxford)

1230–1300 Henrike Lähnemann (German, Oxford)

1300–1415 Lunch

1415–1515 Medieval II

Chair: Richard Sharpe (History, Oxford)

1415–1445 Teresa Webber (History, Cambridge)

1445–1515 Helen Swift (French, Oxford)

1515–1545 Tea & Coffee

1545–1715 Approaches & Resources

Chair: Martin Kauffmann (Bodleian Library)

1545–1615 Julia Walworth (Merton College)

1615–1645 Orietta Da Rold (English, Cambridge)

1645–1715 Peter Stokes (Digital Humanities, KCL)

1730–1815 Closing remarks & round-table

David D'Avray (History, UCL)

1815–1900 Reception

Contact: mary.boyle@merton.ox.ac.uk / tristan.franklinos@classics.ox.ac.uk

Thank you to Merton College History of the Book Group, the Craven Fund, Oxford Medieval Studies, sponsored by the Oxford Research Centre in the Humanities (TORCH), & Merton College's Lancelyn Green Foundation Fund.

